The decision to close our "brick and mortar" store has been a hard one but the time has come. I will still be offering hand quilting, repairs and custom work for clients. I will also still be lecturing, teaching at quilt camp, appearing at guild-based shows, and being available for groups interested in charity quilt making. I will be continuing on as a Mennonite Central Committee fabric & kits collection center. The on-line shopping of our products will continue through the website at www.dovelyquilts.com with the shop button. I will continue to blog, and update fabric, notions and kits going forward. The major changes you will see are the loss of open shop hours and some business details. It has been great so far and I hope for a happy future. Our phone number will remain the same. (414) 967-9160 Peace ~sarah

Dejaquan's Dilemma:

Since Mom is closing the shop she will have more time to volunteer at my school. I am not sure that I want that. Now she will know when I get in trouble.

Did you know that I will come and do a private "sale" at your: Home, school, BEE, social meeting, or retreat? You pick the date and items you want to see: books, patterns, notions, gifts or fabric.

Send a fabric~gram
to your favorite fabric user! Prices start at just $20!
